Raise your middle finger to worries of the past and future. In this series of mindfulness workshops we'll go through tactics that help you stay in the moment and reduce stressful thinking patterns, teach you how not to stress the small stuff, and how to use art f*cking therapy to unwind after a long week at the office.

ALL THINGS CROWN FLORA ● ● ● ●

Join us for a personalized work shop with Queen West floral gurus Crown Flora to break up the monotony of the conference calls + spreadsheets by letting your creative brain blossom. From holiday wreath building to flower crowns to terrariums, the best part of these immersive workshops is that you get to take home the fruit (or flower) of your labour. Keep in mind that while we run the workshops 12 months of the year, the floral selections themselves is subject to seasonal availability.

Learn to control the party by having your team pick up the basic need-to-knows of how best to elevate your status as office DJ (or DJ's if you're willing to share the spotlight). From the technical elements of apps, soundsystems and bluetooth, to the philosophy of picking the perfect songs for any party, 'WOW' your office mates with your ability to turn your office Happy Hour into a banger.

REFRESH & REFUEL ●

Spend the afternoon learning the ins-and-outs of how to blend the perfect juice using fresh, seasonal product from our personal plot (or local Farmer's Markets if in the shoulder season). Whether you want to take the veg from peel to pulp in a masterclass, or just prefer the instant gratification of juicing a prepped basket of local fruit, this class is ideally suited to the day after a local wine tour to allow your body the nutrients to get your focus back on the task at hand.

THE MEDITATION STATION ● ●

In today's fast-paced age everyone can benefit from having a spacious mind. Take some much needed reprieve from your meeting content to find your inner calm with a guided meditation + sound bath. Hit the ground running feeling recharged and clear of purpose when tackling the next chapter in your workshop. The Meditation Station can also be elongated with vinyasa yoga or a more involved masterclass with aromatherapy and intention setting.

YES AND! ● ●

If you've always fancied yourself a funny guy/gal then this improv class is your chance to shine. Hone your comedy craft and channel your favourite 'Whose Line is it Anyway' comedian using the art of improvisation to tighten up your team listening, risk-taking, leadership, confidence skills all while learning the joy (and humour) in saying YES! This workshop is unique in its ability to impart these lessons in a way that's kinetic and fun, leaving teams with a renewed confidence and trust both in themselves and one another.

EXTRA CURRICULAR

BLACK BOX MOCKTAIL COMPETITION ● ● ●

Ever fancied being a mixologist? Well now's your chance! We'll bring you an assortment of seasonal juices, tinctures, garnish and of the necessary glassware. You break the group up into teams, make mock-tails (if you want booze we're not opposed) and see who can create the most refreshing beverage – don't forget to name it!

DRAKE TRIVIA ● ● ● ●

Sports, art, music + government are all fair game in a private bout of Drake Trivia. Three rounds and an hour reprieve from conference calls and screen time is the best way to keep the creative juices flowing. If you want to reward your top performers just ask your coordinator about available pricing from Drake General Store.

ART TOUR ● ●

Drake loves art (done right). Take a tour around the building with the creative minds behind our famous curated collection. Learn the ins-and-outs of what it takes to organize a cohesive collection all while taking a much deserved break from a day of meetings. If you need a snack for the walk we're happy to make suggestions as well.
